Boston University
Where shall the scholar live?
In solitude or in society?
In the green stillness of the country, where he can hear the heart of Nature beat, or in the dark gray city, where he can feel and hear the throbbing heart of man?
I make answer for him, and say, In the dark gray city.

PRESIDENT-EMERITUS WILLIAM F. WARREN, S.T.D., LL.D.
THE PORTRAIT OF EX-PRESIDENT WARREN.

A VERY successful portrait of ex-President William Fairfield Warren has been painted by Mr. Wilbur Dean Hamilton. It will be presented to the University, with appropriate exercises in Jacob Sleeper Hall, corner Boylston and Exeter Streets, on the afternoon of Commencement Day, Wednesday, June 5, at 3 o'clock. Trustees, Faculties, and Graduates of all departments are cordially invited to be present.

A list of donors will be presented to Dr. Warren with the portrait. Those who have not already sent contributions to Mr. Alfred H. Avery, treasurer of the committee, 688 Boylston Street, Boston, are urgently requested to do so before May 20, as it is earnestly desired that the name of every living graduate shall appear on the list of subscribers. The portrait has been on exhibition at Vose's gallery, where it attracted much attention.

BOSTONIA

FINE PORTRAIT OF PRESIDENT WARREN.

Mr. Hamilton's Just-Finished Likeness of the President Emeritus of Boston University an Exceptionally Strong Piece of Work.

A distinctly superior work of art and a living likeness of a distinguished scholar is Wilbur Dean Hamilton's just-finished portrait of President Emeritus William F. Warren of Boston University, which was to have been painted by Vinton if he had lived long enough, but which was confided to Mr. Hamilton soon after Mr. Vinton's death, the commission being given by the alumni of the University. The unmistakably sound and straight character of the work, with its extraordinary reading of the personality of the sitter, together with its beauty as a picture, makes it an important and worthy addition to the list of American works of art combining personal with artistic interest.

Mr. Hamilton seems now to be at the very top of his power, and if this admirable canvas does not appreciably add to his already excellent reputation as a portraitist it will be owing to some unfortunate and improbable lack of appreciation as to what constitutes good work. He has certainly made the best use of a good opportunity. Of living portrait-painters, there are very few who make better heads than this in the Warren portrait: so literal and complete in the sense of fidelity to visible fact, yet so free from the petty, common kind of literalism, which cheapens; so beautifully illuminated and enveloped by the air, yet without any assertion of its claims to style or distinction, without any swagger or réclame. It is a wonderfully honest piece of work, wonderfully modest and painter-like, with singularly few flaws in it; a thoroughly "serious" portrait, as the painters say in their expressive jargon, based on severe and indomitable study and observation and insight, on a great accumulated store of experience, an alert intelligence, and a sensitive and subtle power of perception and co-ordination.

The accomplished and scholarly style of the work comports with the distinguished Boston scholar who is the subject. President Warren is represented sitting in an armchair, wearing his academic robes of black silk with facings of purple velvet, and the hood of a Doctor of Divinity, trimmed with blood-red velvet, is thrown about his neck. This costume is far more paintable and "decorative" (to use another hard-used term) than the usual costume of a modern man; and although one would scarcely venture to suppose that the purple and the blood-red tones could be made to live in amity and peace together, yet this very desirable state of affairs has been somehow brought about by the artist. The painting of the black silk gown is a superb tour de force; it is a choice black, and all the variations in the way its folds take the light, in accordance with their angles, are expressed with the closest and most delicate values.

The background is a rather cool gray screen, and the head comes against this, the shadowed side of the face being as colored and as modeled, no more and no less, as the illuminated side; and the passage from the lighted into the shadowed part of the head is as imperceptible and gradual as it is in nature. One delightful thing about Dr. Hamilton's painting of a head is that there are almost no mannerisms in it. It is not over-modeled, nor is it under-modeled. One feels that this head would hold its own alongside the portraits of most of the famous portrait-painters, old and new, by virtue of its sterling sincerity, its truthfulness, and its many negative merits. It has absolutely no meretricious streak in it; it is "the real thing."
The profound sympathy of the University community is extended to Mrs. Murlin, who was summoned to Michigan on Thursday, April 18, because of the death of her foster-father, Mr. W. H. Moon, who passed away at Lowell, Mich., on Wednesday, April 17.

Ex-President Huntington has been busily engaged during the months of his sojourn in California. He has been in constant demand as a speaker before educational and religious gatherings. Late in April Dr. and Mrs. Huntington left California for a trip to the Yosemite; they will then begin their homeward journey, stopping at Vancouver, Minneapolis, Chicago, and Indianapolis, and reaching Boston not later than Wednesday, May 29. They will receive a royal welcome from every member of the University community.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Although the official programme of Commencement Week is not yet ready for distribution to the press, the arrangements have progressed sufficiently to permit us to make at this time some important announcements. On Tuesday evening, June 4, the night preceding Commencement, the newly organized Alumni Association, which includes all men and women who have graduated from any department of the University, will hold a business meeting. This gathering will adjourn at an hour early enough to permit the members to attend the annual banquet of the various chapters of the Convocation. On Wednesday, June 5, at the conclusion of the Commencement Exercises, the graduates of the University, including those who receive their diplomas that morning, will meet for a social hour and a business session in Tremont Temple. The business meeting will take the place of the Convocation meeting which has hitherto been held in Jacob Sleeper Hall on the afternoon of Commencement Day. It is proposed to make this new meeting a general rally of Boston University graduates. The relatives and friends of the new graduates will be cordially welcomed to the social gathering at the business session. A brief programme of informal toasts will be provided. These exercises will conclude at an hour sufficiently early to permit the presence of all graduates and friends of the University at the exercises attendant upon the presentation to the University of the portrait of ex-President Warren, in Jacob Sleeper Hall, at 3 P.M.

THE PASSING OF DR. JOHN W. LINDSAY.

Of late it has been the sad duty of the editors of BOSTONIA frequently to record the death of distinguished men whose long term of service goes back to the very beginning of the history of Boston University. It is with profound sorrow that we record the snapping of another link in the chain that binds the present to the past. The biographical sketch of the late Dr. Lindsay, which will be found elsewhere in this issue of BOSTONIA, is an impressive testimony to his broad scholarship and to his many-sided activities in the institution to which he devoted some of the most fruitful years of his life. The younger generation, who know him only by repute, will cherish and revere his name as one of the puissant fashioners and molders of our nascent University. Those who knew him personally will never forget the genial wit, the polished grace, of this courtly Christian gentleman.

By an arrangement with the officers of the Epsilon Chapter of Convocation, we combine in this issue the regular features of BOSTONIA with a new and much needed issue of the Epsilon. We take this welcome opportunity of paying a tribute to the faithful and devoted services of Mrs. Grace Griffiths Pearson, the Secretary of Epsilon Chapter, for the painstaking care which she has shown in the preparation of the new edition of Epsilon. The task of securing accurate data regarding our widely scattered alumni has been a very serious tax on her time and strength. During the last year she has practically devoted her entire working hours to this task. Mrs. Pearson richly deserves, and she will surely receive, the sincere thanks of every graduate of the College of Liberal Arts.

The presentation of the portrait of ex-President Warren on the afternoon of Commencement Day will mark the completion of the first stage of the important undertaking to which the Convocation has addressed itself. We acknowledge elsewhere in this issue of BOSTONIA the receipt of several subscriptions to the portrait fund. Every effort will now be made to secure the speedy completion of the fund, and to procure the companion portrait of ex-President Huntington.

The University is putting forth every effort to make Baccalaureate Sunday one of the most notable days of Commencement Week. We call special attention to the resolutions which were recently passed by the Board of Trustees requesting the presence of every graduate and friend of the University who can possibly be present on that occasion. The exercises will take place at the Old South Church, Copley Square, at 4 P.M., on Sunday, June 2.

In generously devoting for a term of years a portion of its annual income to the college library, in memory of the late Professor T. B. Lindsay, the Phi Beta Kappa Society has not only rendered to the University a very great service in a department where such help is peculiarly welcome, but it has notably contributed to the perpetuation of the name and influence of one of the most distinguished members of the college Faculty and of this famous society of scholars.

The Library Committee has procured a book-plate making suitable recognition of this memorial gift of the society. Every book which is purchased by the library from the Phi Beta Kappa fund will bear the name of Professor T. B. Lindsay, and will record the name of the donor.

A striking indication of the success achieved by the graduates of the College of Liberal Arts in the teaching profession is the fact, noted elsewhere, that three graduates of that department of Boston University are members of the Faculty of the Teachers' College of Columbia University during the present academic year.
IN MEMORIAM.

REV. JOHN W. LINDSAY, D.D.

Rev. John Wesley Lindsay, D.D., father of the late Professor Thomas B. Lindsay, and grandfather of Mr. Lennox H. Lindsay, A.B. '99, LL.B. '02, died on Monday, March 4, at Clifton Springs, N. Y. Dr. Lindsay was born in Barre, Vt., Aug. 20, 1820. He prepared for college at Wesleyan Academy and the Boston Latin School. He was graduated from Wesleyan University in 1840. He entered the Union Theological Seminary in New York, and, upon his graduation from that institution, in 1843, he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Obliged temporarily to relinquish the pulpit because of a bronchial affection, he entered the teaching profession. Joining the Wesleyan University Faculty in 1847 as a tutor he was appointed, in 1848, Professor of Latin and Hebrew in that institution; and he held this chair until 1860. Upon relinquishing his professorship he reentered the ministry, and for five years he was one of the most popular preachers in the city of New York. At the end of that period he was called to the presidency of Genesee College at Lima, N. Y., a position which he held for three years, leaving in 1871 to accept the chair of Exegetical Theology in the School of Theology of Boston University. Thus began his long term of distinguished services in Boston University. When the College of Liberal Arts of the University was organized, in 1873, he became its first Dean. He held that office until his resignation in 1882, when he was succeeded by Dr. W. E. Huntington. From 1883 until 1884 he was Professor of New Testament Greek and Exegesis in the School of Theology. From 1884 until his death he was Professor Emeritus of Exegetical Theology in the same school. He served as Acting Dean of the Graduate School from 1874 until 1884. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University from 1869 until 1882.

The interment took place on Saturday, March 9, in Lynn, Mass.

At the Meeting of the Board of Trustees which was held on Monday afternoon, March 18, 1912, Rev. W. T. Perrin, Ph.D., presented the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, It is very desirable for the dignity and impressiveness of the occasion itself, and for the unification of the various Departments of the University, that there should be a full attendance when the President preaches the Baccalaureate Sermon to the Graduating Class;

Therefore, Resolved:
First, That the Trustees attend in a body;
Second, That all the members of the Faculties of the several Departments of the University be requested to be present;
Third, That all members of the Graduating Class in the several Departments of the University be expected to attend, unless excused for satisfactory reasons by the Deans of their respective Departments;
Fourth, That the Deans of the several Departments of the University be urged to secure as full an attendance as possible, and be hereby appointed a Committee of Arrangements;
Fifth, That we earnestly urge the alumni to attend these exercises.

On motion of Rev. W. I. Ward, S.T.D., these resolutions were adopted.
THE BOSTON UNIVERSITY SOCIAL UNION.

Three hundred Boston University men gathered at the School of Theology, on the evening of March 4, for the first definite organization of the Boston University Social Union. All departments were well represented, and during the informal half-hour from 8 to 8.30 o'clock there were many new friends made, and a new interest in a united University was kindled.

After the social hour the men assembled in the School Chapel and listened to several stirring addresses. Mr. W. O. Stuntz, of the Theological School, presided, and introduced Mr. Marcel Theriault, B. U. Law, '14, who outlined the plans of the Union and showed what such a body of men might mean for the University.

President Murlin was called upon to speak, and received a cordial greeting. He said that the Trustees and Faculties were heartily supporting the new idea — always ready to help, but desiring that the students lead in the matter.

Acting Dean Alonzo Weed, of the Law School, spoke a few words expressive of his pleasure over the success of the evening, and the Dean-Elect, Homer Albers, was also called upon.

Mr. Chas. T. Bernhart, of the School of Theology, gave several readings and imitations. Mr. M. E. Osborne, of the School of Theology, sang two solos, accompanied by the guitar. Professor S. J. MacWatters was called upon to lead the men in his new Boston University song.

Refreshments were served, after which University songs were sung.

The chapel service on Friday, March 22, was unusually interesting, owing to a new feature introduced by President Murlin. At the close of the religious exercises Dr. Murlin made an address to the students, in which he said that his conception of a college chapel service would include a daily assembly of all the students, at which, in addition to the devotional exercises, an opportunity should be offered the students to give personal expression to the various student activities of the University. He would not limit such expression to the students of the College of Liberal Arts, but would urge the presence of representatives from the Schools of Theology, Law, and Medicine. As a practical illustration of his plan, Dr. Murlin called upon the officers of various organizations and committees to make a brief address upon the interest which they represented. Those who responded were the following: Mr. D. A. Palmer, for the Young Men's Christian Association; Miss Dorothea M. Melden, for the Young Women's Christian Association; Mr. Bertrand Hooper, for The Hub; Dean W. M. Warren, for The Beacon; Miss Flora A. Chase, for Gamma Delta; Mr. Harry G. Newman, for the Men's Union; Mr. Charles H. Smith, for the Glee Club; Dr. Edward S. Elliott, for Athletics; Mr. Everett W. Lord, for the Men's Graduate Club.

On Wednesday, February 7, the University celebrated the centenary of the birth of Charles Dickens. All college exercises were suspended during the time of the meeting. The celebration was under the auspices of the Department of English of the College of Liberal Arts. President Murlin presided, and Professor Dallas Lore Sharp made an address introducing the orator of the day, Dr. E. Charlton Black, who took as his theme, "Charles Dickens in the Twentieth Century." Music was furnished by the University Glee Club.
The Day of Prayer for colleges was observed by the University on Wednesday, February 14. The sermon was delivered by Dean L. J. Birney, of the School of Theology. The Glee Club sang appropriate selections, and led the congregational singing.

In response to a notice sent out to all the women graduates of Boston University, a goodly number of alumnae gathered at the College Building on the afternoon of Friday, March 15. By-Laws were adopted, and the following officers elected: president, Ruth L. S. Child, C. L. A., '93; vice-president, Dr. Clara E. Gary, School of Medicine, '85; secretary, Lucille Gulliver, C. L. A., '06; treasurer, Amy F. Acton, School of Law, '95. Directors: Dr. Eliza T. Ransom, School of Medicine, '00; Mrs. Walter Hartstone, School of Law; Augusta N. Putnam, C. L. A., '91; Mrs. Louise Symonds Collins, C. L. A., '02; and Mrs. Eva Phillips Boyd, C. L. A., '03.

The new association is named the Women Graduates' Club of Boston University. The By-Laws establish two kinds of membership,—active and associate,—to the first of which any alumna is eligible; and to the second, any woman student who has had the equivalent of a full year's work, but who is no longer a student in the University. Application for membership must be made in writing to the secretary, and election will be made by the Executive Board. At present the dues are fifty cents, payable on May first.

The charter members number more than a hundred, and already the membership has passed the one-hundred-and-fifty mark. Plans for definite work are shaping themselves in accordance with ideas and suggestions from many sources.

On Friday, February 23, President and Mrs. Murlin tendered a reception to the members of the Senior Class of all departments of the University at the Hotel Vendome, Boston. In the receiving-line were President and Mrs. Murlin, Dean W. M. Warren, Dean L. J. Birney, and Acting Dean A. R. Weed.

On Friday, March 15, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of the College of Liberal Arts, Lieutenant-Governor Robert E. Luce delivered, in Jacob Sleeper Hall, before the students of the University, an address on "The College Man in Public Life." The meeting was called to order by Mr. David A. Palmer, president of the Association. After the devotional exercises, Mr. Palmer put the meeting into the hands of President Murlin, who gracefully introduced Lieutenant-Governor Luce.

The Cosmopolitan Trust Company of Boston, of which Mr. Silas Peirce, Treasurer of Boston University, is president, opened its doors for business on Wednesday, April 3. The banking-rooms are at 76 Devonshire St.

Through the generosity of Mr. R. R. Robinson, of the Board of Trustees, the Faculty and students of the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology were the guests of the Methodist Social Union on Monday, February 19. Ex-President W. F. Warren, President L. H. Murlin, and the members of the Faculty occupied places at the guests' table. Music was furnished by the Boston University Glee Club.

Contributions from Miss Agnes E. Ryan and Mr. Curtis H. Burt have been received by the Portrait Committee.

President Lemuel H. Murlin presided at the New Voters' Rally on Sunday, March 24, in the Old South Meeting-House. The musical programme was in charge of the Boston University Glee Club.
Henry D. Ayers, a graduate of the College of Liberal Arts, class of 1908, died at Nashua, N. H., Feb. 10, 1912. Mr. Ayers was born at Canterbury, N. H., July 14, 1882, the son of Charles H. and Mattie J. Ayers. He received his early education in the schools of Canterbury and Lisbon. He was graduated from the New Hampton Literary Institution in 1904 and entered college the same year. From the first he made his influence felt in the life of the college. His fellow students remember him as a young man of refined tastes, attractive personality, and unresting activity. He was a gifted musician. He held the position of chapel pianist throughout his course, and his playing was often praised. He made friends easily, and in his friendships he was always loyal. After his graduation he taught German one year at the Higgins Classical Institute, Charleston, Me., and two years at the Bangor High School. As a teacher he was popular and successful; he devoted himself unremittingly to the good of his pupils.

But his strength was not equal to his demands upon it. Last August he went to Germany, intending to spend a year there in study; but in October failing health compelled his return. Since December he had been at the sanatorium where he passed away.

The memory of his ideals and of his eager devotion to duty will long inspire his friends.

W. G. Aurelio.

Miss Georgia F. Bentley, '10, was married, on Saturday, February 24, to Mr. Malcolm Green, at Hyde Park, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside at 27 Pleasant St., Hyde Park.

The Men's Graduate Club of the College of Liberal Arts had a pleasant lunch and reception at the City Club on March 23, about sixty men being present, with President Murlin as the guest of the occasion. Reports of the various committees and officers of the club were presented, and these reports, indicative of continuing activity, were received with much enthusiasm.

The University Quartette — Messrs. Baldwin, Rowse, Hatch, and Chandler — enlivened the proceedings with several selections, and President Murlin, who was very warmly received, made a brief address. At the conclusion of his address there were cheers for Boston University and the President was assured of the continued support of the graduates.

Rev. Albert M. Farr, '07, is in charge of a large district in Wyoming, including Fort Yellowstone.

Rev. Luther Freeman, '89, has resigned the presidency of Morningside College, Sioux City, Io., and is now pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Columbus, O.
Faculty Promotions and Additions.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the University on Wednesday, April 17, the following assistant professors in the College of Liberal Arts were promoted to full professorships: William G. Aurelio, Greek; Robert E. Bruce, Mathematics; John P. Marshall, music. Dr. John Eastman Clark, Instructor in History and Philosophy, was promoted to the Professorship of Education and Public School Administration. Mr. Warren Ortman Ault was appointed Instructor in History, his service to begin in September, 1913.

Professor W. G. Aurelio is a graduate of Boston University, A.B. ’94, A.M. ’95. He taught Greek and Mathematics in New Hampton (N. H.) Literary Institution from 1895 until 1897. He was appointed a Jacob Sleeper Fellow of Boston University for the year 1897-98, and he studied at the University of Göttingen from 1897 until 1899. He was Instructor in Greek and German at Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., from 1899 until 1901. Coming to Boston University in 1901, he served for one year as Instructor in Greek and Latin, and was promoted in 1902 to an assistant professorship in Greek, which position he held continuously until his recent promotion to a full professorship.

Professor Robert E. Bruce is also a graduate of Boston University, A.B. ’01. He was awarded the degree of Master of Arts by Harvard University in 1911 for work done in residence in the Graduate School of that University. Professor Bruce taught Mathematics in Pomona College, California, during the academic year 1902-03. He was appointed Instructor in Mathematics in Boston University in 1903, and filled that position until 1905, when he was appointed Assistant Professor of Mathematics, holding that position uninterruptedly until his promotion to the full professorship in that department.

Professor John P. Marshall first came to Boston University, College of Liberal Arts, as lecturer on History of Music, in February, 1903. This course was provided by the Alumni History Association. The course was repeated in 1903-04. In 1904 he was appointed Instructor in History and Theory of Music. In 1906 he was appointed assistant professor, and in April 1912 full professor.

The Department of Music has grown from one course in History of Music to ten courses, including Harmony, Advanced Harmony, Counterpoint, Appreciation of Music, and Public-School Music. More than one hundred and fifty students are registered in the Department of Music during the current year.

Professor Marshall is organist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra; organist of the First Church, Marlborough Street; and lecturer on Music for the Massachusetts University Extension. During the past five years he has had charge of the Music Courses in the Harvard Summer School.

Professor John Eastman Clark is a graduate of Boston University, A.B. ’78, Ph.D. (Boston University) ’82. Dr. Clark studied abroad at the University of Berlin, 1885-86, and at the Sorbonne, Paris, 1909-10. Dr. Clark has had an extended experience in educational work. He was sub-master of the Gloucester, Mass., High School; Master of the Lynn and the Chelsea High Schools; master in German in the Penn Charter School, Philadelphia, Penn.; Principal of the Gilbert School, Winsted, Conn. Since 1909 he has been Instructor in History and Philosophy in Boston University. He is a member of the American Mathematical Society.

Dr. Clark will offer during the first semester of the next year the following courses in the new Department of Education and Public School Administration, of which he is the head:

HISTORY OF EDUCATION.—A comprehensive study of educational progress from the earliest times to the present. Lectures, readings, résumés, and a paper based upon some specified topic of research.

SCHOOL ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.—A study of organization of schools public and private in various nations, with especial reference to the school laws of the United States. Lectures, readings, and reports.

PSYCHOLOGY OF EDUCATION.—An examination of the psychological basis of modern methods. Lectures and reports of readings and individual experiment.

PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION.—The aims of education, the comparative value of studies, formal discipline and related topics. Lectures, readings, résumés, and a paper based upon some specified topic of research.

Second Semester

HISTORY OF EDUCATION—Continued from first semester.

CONTEMPORARY METHODS.—A comparative study of school curricula, object teaching, and laboratory work. Lectures and reports of research.

Mr. Warren Ortman Ault was graduated from Baker University, Kansas, in 1907. He was elected by the Kansas Commission on Rhodes Scholarship, as Rhodes Scholar from Kansas. He made use of his residence in Oxford University in the study of History. At the end of his three years of travel and study he returned to America. He was made Instructor in History in Baker University. He was subsequently appointed to a Fellowship in Yale University, where he now resides. Mr. Ault will begin his work in Boston University in September, 1913.

On another page of this issue of BOSTONIA will be found a notice of the recent appointment of Dr. B. W. Van Riper as Professor of Philosophy.

The University of Chicago has placed in one of the University buildings a portrait of Miss Marion Talbot, '80, Dean of Women in that institution. Miss Talbot came to Chicago University at the opening of the institution as one of the two Deans of Women. Her associate was Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer. Dean Talbot's services to the University have been uninterrupted since her assumption of the office of Dean of Women. The Chicago Record-Herald of Tuesday, March 12, contained an appreciative sketch of Miss Talbot's distinguished record, from which we take the following paragraph:

"Miss Talbot has been influential, not only as Dean of Women, but as Professor of Sanitary Science and later as head of the Department of Household Administration, as a member of the various Faculties, of the most important Faculty committees and administrative boards. To her largely is due the successful organization of the women's halls which now are accepted as the model for domestic organization among students in most universities and colleges, and which are to be imitated when the housing of the men students of the University is more thoroughly carried out."

Mr. Frank J. Metcalf, '86, contributed to the Epworth Herald of February 10 an article on "The Centennial of Henry Wilson, Vice-President of the United States."
Dr. John C. Ferguson, '86, has been summoned to Pekin to become the Foreign Secretary of the Board of Posts and Communications, said Board being the department of the government which has charge of all post-offices, telegraphs, railroads, and navigation in the Chinese Empire.

Professor Elizabeth D. Hanscom, '87, of the Department of English of Smith College, is preparing an edition of Shakespeare's Henry IV, Part II. This work will appear as one of the volumes of the Tudor Shakespeare, edited by Professor W. A. Neilson and A. H. Thorndike, and published by the Macmillan Company.

At the seventh annual meeting of the Classical Association of New England, held at Yale University on Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, papers were read by Miss Mary J. Wellington, '87, of the Manchester, N. H., High School, and by Miss Julia K. Ordway, '99, of the Girls' Latin School, Boston. Miss Wellington's subject was, “The Latin Course in Secondary Schools;” Miss Ordway took as her theme, “Vergil's Portrayal of Woman.”

Mr. Robert J. Sprague, '97, has been appointed Professor of Economics and Sociology in the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Since leaving college Dr. Sprague has taught in the Maine Wesleyan Seminary, Knox College, and the University of Maine.

Edith Everett, '00, has written a Morality Play entitled “Everystudent.” This play is published by A. Flanagan Co., Chicago, Ill. While the true style and simplicity of the old morality is preserved, much of the play is modern, as the characters show. Everystudent is tempted by Bluff and threatened by Exam; seeks the friendship of Athletics but has to resort to Study and in the end finds Truth, who reveals to him the true nature of Results. Good Times enters with his crew, and Alma Mater passes judgment in the end. The play was a great success when given by the class in Englewood, N. J., for which it was written.

Mr. Maro Beath Jones, '00, who for the past five years has been an instructor at Case Institute of Applied Science, has been chosen head of the Department of Romance Languages of Pomona College, Claremont, Cal. Professor Jones spent last summer in Europe, and called at the college when passing through Boston on his return.

Dr. B. W. Van Riper, Professor of Philosophy in Nebraska Wesleyan University, has been appointed Assistant Professor of Philosophy in Boston University. Professor Van Riper is a graduate of Allegheny College, and he received the degree of Ph.D. from Boston University in 1908. Dr. Van Riper is now in Europe, engaged in philosophical studies at the University of Jena. He will begin his work in Boston University at the opening of the college year next September.

The Houghton, Mifflin Company announce among their spring and summer publications a “Critical Exposition of Kant and Spencer,” by the late Professor Borden Parker Bowne. The volume is in two parts: the first devoted to Kant, with special consideration of his “Critique of Pure Reason;” and the second to Herbert Spencer.

Miss Marietta L. Kirby, '06, has recently been appointed a regular substitute in the Boston High Schools.
Miss Lucile Gulliver, '06, has brought out a new book, "The Friendship of Nations." The book is a simple, concise, attractive story of the peace movement from the earliest times. The book is well written, and is copiously illustrated. It will prove not only of interest to the general reader, but it will be found useful as a supplementary reader in the upper Grammar and lower High School grades in connection with history, civil government, geography, moral and ethical training, and public exercises. It contains a foreword by David Starr Jordan. (Ginn & Company, publishers.)

Professor James Geddes, Jr., is a member of the Board of Directors of the Boston Cooperative Information Bureau. This Bureau is a voluntary association of persons and organizations for mutual assistance in the ascertainment of sources and supplies of information. The purpose of the Bureau is to aid its members by directing them to sources and supplies of information, primarily to those that are available in or near Boston. The administration headquarters are at 147 Milk St., Boston.

Professor Geddes delivered an address on "Our Italian Population" before the annual meeting of the South Friendly Society of the South Congregational Church, Boston, on Thursday, January 18.

Professor F. S. Baldwin has been appointed a member of the Board of Appeal of the Massachusetts Civil Service Commission. He will also serve as secretary of the Board. This Board passes on complaints in respect to the marking on Civil Service Examination-papers.

Professor Baldwin has also been appointed a member of a committee of the National Municipal League on the Liquor Problem. The object of this League is to study methods of regulating the liquor traffic in municipalities.

Professor Baldwin has accepted the office of secretary of the Massachusetts Employees' Insurance Association. This is a public corporation organized to administer the insurance under the Workmen's Compensation Act of 1911. It is the first undertaking of this kind in this country. Professor Baldwin accepts this office at the special request of Governor Foss.

Among the readings and addresses which Professor Dallas Lore Sharp has recently delivered are the following: Friday, February 16, at Bowdoin College, readings from his work, "The Face of the Fields;" Wednesday, February 21, at Brown University, before the alumni of Providence and vicinity, an address on "The Writer and the University;" Sunday, February 25, at Hingham, Mass., an address on "Lincoln, Washington, and Patriotism." Professor Sharp contributed to the February issue of the magazine Flowers an article entitled "Flowers and Spring."

Mrs. Julia Snow Latimer Munger, '79, died, in Chicago, Ill., on Tuesday, Jan. 16, 1912. Mrs. Munger was born in Penn Yan, Yates County, New York. After graduating from Boston University she taught school in Chicago. Her last position before her marriage to Mr. Orett L. Munger was in the South Side High School. Mrs. Munger was widely known in Chicago through her philanthropic and settlement work. The funeral services were conducted at her home; the interment was at Oakwoods Cemetery.

The eleventh annual meeting of the New England Association of Teachers of English was held, in Jacob Sleeper Hall, on Saturday, March 16. The general topic of the meeting was, "The College Entrance Requirements in English."
The United States Commissioner of Education invited forty educators to attend a conference at St. Louis on February 27 to consider the subjects of educational measurements and scientific management as applied to colleges and universities. Among those invited were Mr. Everett W. Lord, '00, Men's Secretary of Boston University, and Dr. Leonard P. Ayres, '02, of the Russell Sage Foundation, New York.

On Sunday, February 4, Professor E. Charlton Black delivered, in the lecture-hall of the Boston Public Library, an address on Charles Dickens. On Wednesday, February 7, he also spoke in Boston, on the theme "Dickens and Little Children," before the All Around Dickens Club.

At the fifth annual meeting of the Eastern Massachusetts Section of the Classical Association of New England, held at Boston University on Saturday, February 10, Professor Donald Cameron gave an address on "Some Ancient Horses, and Their Riders," and Professor Alexander H. Rice gave an illustrated address on "The Buried City of Pompeii."

Dr. John Eastman Clark, '78, Instructor in Philosophy and History in the College of Liberal Arts, has introduced a course in Pragmatism. The course is, in part, a review of the lectures on "Pragmatism" which Professor William James gave before the Lowell Institute in 1906.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

On Wednesday, April 3, Mr. W. E. Carpenter, of Brazil, Ind., delivered, in the chapel of the School of Theology, an address before the students of the school and the ministers and Sunday-school superintendents of Greater Boston. Mr. Carpenter's school now has an enrolment of 4,897. It is said to be the largest Sunday school in the world.

Professor N. E. Richardson delivered an address on "Bible Study" at a meeting held in Brockton on Thursday, March 21, in connection with the Men and Religion Forward Movement.

On the evening of Commencement Day, Wednesday, June 5, there will be held in Tremont Temple the graduating exercises of the students who have completed the Teachers' Training Course, established by Dr. Richardson and conducted by him and his assistants during the present year. The enrolment in these courses has already reached 1,500. Certificates will be conferred upon the graduates. The address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. David G. Downey, D.D., Secretary of the Sunday-School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

SCHOOL OF LAW.

Among the new courses for the second semester is that on Equitable Remedies, by C. Neal Barney, Esq., class of 1898. Mr. Barney's course consists of about thirty lectures, and will be supplemented by special lectures on Equitable Procedure by Acting Dean Weed and Judge Emery.
The Faculty of the Law School gave a reception in honor of Dean-Elect Albers, at 7.45 P.M., Tuesday, April 23, shortly before Mr. Albers's departure for Europe. The entire student body of the school, the Standing Committee of Trustees, the Official Visitors of the Law School, and the officers of the Alumni Association were invited to attend the reception as guests of the Faculty.

As a result of the reception given to the undergraduates of the Law School by the Alumni Association of the school, a much better spirit of good fellowship and of loyalty to the school has been manifested. During the last school year, through the efforts of Mr. Joseph J. Feely, president of the Alumni Association, a reception was given by the Alumni Association to the undergraduates of the Law School in the school building. The present president of the Alumni Association, Mr. Fletcher Ranney, followed the example by tendering a reception in October of the present school year. The success of the two receptions was instant, yet lasting. The tone of good fellowship prevailing induced the members of the third-year class to give a reception to the members of the first-year class, and this courtesy was later reciprocated by the first-year students.

Messrs. Little, Brown & Co. have recently published Professor John E. Macy's case-book entitled "Cases on Municipal Corporations."

In this very comprehensive work the list of cases and the arrangement as they finally appear have been gradually decided upon after careful consideration by a process of elimination from those used at various times in the author's classes. The author says: "Over three hundred and eighty cases were read or examined in making up the simple little section consisting of four cases on the Establishment of a Public Easement." This conveys a fair idea of the amount of research involved in the process of elimination in order to get representative cases.

The new work has already obtained a wide sale, and has been adopted for use in classroom by several law schools.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.

An event of great interest to the Medical School was the formal opening, on March 6 of the Robert Dawson Evans Memorial for Clinical Research and Preventive Medicine, the new department of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital, and closely connected with the School of Medicine.

This splendidly equipped hospital and laboratory is the gift of Mrs. Evans, widow of Robert Dawson Evans, built on land owned by the Medical School and given by the Trustees of the University for its present use. With the exception of the central campus, with its fine trees, the land owned by the hospital and the school is now almost completely filled, and the whole makes a fine group of buildings.

At the formal opening exercises in the afternoon of the sixth, the presentation was made by Dr. Frank C. Richardson in behalf of Mrs. Evans; the address of acceptance, by Mr. Edward Haven Mason, president of the Hospital Trustees. At the close of his speech Mr. Mason presented to Mrs. Evans, through Dr. Richardson as her representative, a beautiful gold key, symbolic of the freedom of the new department given her.
Remarks were made by Lieutenant-Governor Robert Luce, Acting Mayor of Boston Attridge, President Murlin of Boston University, President Maclaurin of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. An address was delivered by Dean John P. Sutherland, representing the medical fraternity.

At the evening exercises Dr. Frank C. Richardson, Registrar of the Medical School and Medical Director of the new department, gave an address on the aims and purposes of the Memorial; and addresses were made by Drs. Walter B. Cannon, James J. Putnam, and Elmer E. Southard of Harvard Medical School; Professor Leary, of Tufts Medical School; Professor G. G. Wilson, of Harvard Law School; and several prominent workers on social service lines.

The beautiful building was thrown open to the public during the four days March 6, 7, 8, and 9; and on Sunday, the tenth, the first patients were admitted. Already the rooms are filling fast, and applications for admission bid fair to exceed the accommodations.

One of the prominent features of the new building is the beautiful hall on the ground floor. This seats about two hundred and fifty, and is to be in almost constant use in the evenings for lectures and health talks to the public. A partial course for the months of April and May includes the following:

The lectures will be given at eight o'clock in the evening.

Dr. Frank C. Richardson sailed on March 31 for Old Point Comfort for a short and much-needed rest. Dr. Richardson has had a hard and trying winter, planning all the details and buying the furnishings and supplies for the recently opened Evans Memorial, in addition to his practice and his duties as registrar and professor in the School of Medicine.

On Wednesday evening, March 20, President Murlin addressed the graduating class of nurses, Massachusetts Homoeopathic Hospital, at their graduation exercises. Thirty-one young women received diplomas, having satisfactorily completed the required three-years course.

Dr. Almah J. Frisby, of Milwaukee, a graduate of the class of 1883, occupies a responsible position on the Wisconsin Board of Charities and Correction.

The spring term of the School of Medicine opened on Monday, March 25, after a week of vacation. Final examinations for the year will be given in April and May, at the close of courses.

Mr. Everett W. Burdett, Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence, began his bi-annual course to the Senior and Junior classes on Tuesday, April 2.
