SUNDAY, JUNE 18.

Baccalaureate Convocation for the Graduating Classes of all departments in the Old South Church, Copley Square. Address by James Albert Beebe, D.D., S.T.D., Dean of Boston University School of Theology. Alumni are invited to participate in these exercises, meeting with the trustees, faculties, and graduating classes at the College Building, 688 Boylston Street, at 3.00 P.M., and joining the procession to reserved seats in the church. Following the public exercises, the Women Graduates' Club, at the request of President Murlin, will keep open house for all graduates and their friends in the Trustees' Parlor at 688 Boylston Street.

It is urgently requested that as many alumni as possible join the undergraduate body in the baccalaureate processional leaving the college building, 688 Boylston Street, at 3.30 Sunday afternoon, June 18. It is planned to take moving pictures of this processional, to be used in connection with the endowment campaign, and it is hoped that alumni, faculty, trustees, and students will co-operate in making this an impressive picture of university life. Academic costume preferred, but not required. Costumes may be purchased or rented through the University Bookstore, 688 Boylston Street, if application is made on or before June 1.

MONDAY, JUNE 19.

Commencement Day. Trustees, faculties, and candidates for degrees and diplomas assemble in Symphony Hall at 10.00 A.M. The procession starts at 10.15. The public exercises begin promptly at 10.30.

For reserved seats address: Ralph W. Taylor, Secretary of the Convocation, 688 Boylston Street, Boston 17, on or before June 10.

12.30 P.M. University Convocation Luncheon. Immediately following the Commencement Exercises the members of the graduating classes will be the guests of the University at a buffet luncheon in the balcony foyer of Symphony Hall.

Tickets for the luncheon must be secured on or before June 12 from the offices of the deans of the various colleges and schools.
Trustees and members of the faculties and their wives who desire to attend this luncheon may obtain tickets for $1.00 each upon application to Ralph W. Taylor, Secretary of the Convocation, 688 Boylston Street, Boston 17, on or before June 12. (Alumni and friends will find ample accommodations for luncheon at restaurants in the vicinity of Symphony Hall. It might be well to make reservations.)

1.30 p. m. University Convocation in Symphony Hall immediately after the University Luncheon. The members of the graduating classes and all alumni and their friends are invited. There will be an interesting program lasting not more than one hour.

6.00 p. m. Alpha Chapter, Boston University Convocation. Twentieth Century Club. Annual Meeting and Banquet. (See announcement of School of Theology, on page 165.)

8.00 p. m. University Night at the Symphony Concert. (For announcement, see page 170.)

BOSTON UNIVERSITY CONVOCATION

Chapter Announcements

ALPHA CHAPTER (School of Theology)

The Annual Meeting and Banquet of Alpha Chapter will be held on Monday evening, June 19, at 6.00 o'clock, at the Twentieth Century Club. The speakers of the evening will be Bishop McConnell, Bishop Hughes, Dean Beebe, and President Murlin. Those who have been graduated fifty years and more will be guests of honor. The banquet will be preceded by an informal reception at 5.30.

Members or classes (undergraduate or alumni) of the School of Theology, desiring to sit together at the Pop Concert Monday night, June 19, should make reservations at $1.00 each through Miss Helen Dame, 72 Mt. Vernon Street, on or before May 31.

BETA CHAPTER (School of Law)

The Annual Summer Outing and Meeting of the Boston University Law School Association, for the election of officers for the coming year, will be held Friday, June 23.

In accordance with a custom which has been established, the reunion of five-year classes will be held at this time, and there will be a special celebration of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Class of 1897. United States Senator David I. Walsh, who is a member of that class, is expected to be present.

Members or classes (undergraduate or alumni) of the Law School, desiring to sit together at the Pop Concert Monday night, June 19, should make reservations at $1.00 each through Mr. James N. Carter, 11 Ashburton Place, Boston, on or before May 31.

GAMMA CHAPTER (School of Medicine)

The Annual Reunion and Banquet of the Alumni Association of the School of Medicine will be held at Young's Hotel on Friday, June 16. The business meeting will be called to order promptly at 6.30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7.00 p.m. The principal speaker of the evening will be J. Weston Allen, Attorney-General of Massachusetts.

Class reunions will be an enjoyable feature of the evening's program. It will be a good opportunity to get in touch with the present-day activities of the Medical School and to renew old friendships.

Members or classes (undergraduate or alumni) of the Medical School, desiring to sit together at the Pop Concert Monday night, June 19, should make reservations at $1.00 each through Dr. Cecil W. Clark, 306 Walnut Street, Newtonville, Mass., on or before May 31.

The usual ballot and official notices will be mailed to all members about May 15.

Address all communications to Cecil W. Clark, M.D., 306 Walnut Street, Newtonville, Mass.

EPSILON CHAPTER (College of Liberal Arts)

Annual June Reunion, Saturday, June 17.

On "Warren Day," March 13, 1922, the occasion of the annual business session of Epsilon Chapter, officers and class delegates were unanimous in favoring a fourth annual Commencement Reunion at Lasell Seminary, Auburndale. This action may be interpreted as the expression of the five hundred alumni who participated in last year's "Alumni Day."

The Seminary location combines opportunities for recreation and pleasant rambles, with retreats for out-door class reunions—the natural amphitheatre, the crows'-nest, the sloping lawns, and the shaded porches. The special alumni performance of the Senior Play will be presented in the gymnasium. Riverside-on-the-Charles is but a short walk away, giving opportunity for canoeing during the morning hours.

Members of the "forty-five-year class," 1877, who may be able to attend Commencement Week End, are to be the special guests of Epsilon Chapter.

Why not one thousand loyal sons and daughters at the Reunion
this year, to cap the Fiftieth Anniversary Endowment Campaign among the alumni?

Alumni Day Events. Morning: General recreational programme, Seminary grounds and Riverside.

Noon: Class luncheons, Lasell Seminary. Reserved tables for class groups. The Committee will be glad to co-operate with class secretaries in perfecting reunion plans.

Afternoon: Outdoor programme, 3 p.m. Senior Class Play,
"Billeted," gymnasium.

of five-year classes. Induction of graduating class. Speeches.
Music. No limit will be placed upon the expression of loyalty to class, alumni association, College, or University through symbols, songs, speeches, or cheers. A special committee is planning unique features for this occasion.

Charges and Reservations. Luncheon, $2.00; Banquet, $2.50;
Luncheon and Banquet, $4.00. These charges include an overhead fee required to meet cost of printing, rental of grounds and buildings, and the general expenses of the Reunion. So far as possible reservations should be made and paid for in advance. It is desired that the class secretaries canvass their class membership and inform the Alumni Treasurer of reservations required. Reservations may be made through class secretaries or the Alumni Treasurer, Carroll Q.
Jones, 110 Kittredge Street, Roslindale, Mass.

Accommodations and Transportation. Reservations in the University dormitories for any part or all of the Commencement period may be made by alumni and their families coming from a distance, if a sufficient number apply; otherwise, assistance will be given in securing suitable accommodations.
These dormitories are located on the new University land on Bay State Road and Commonwealth Avenue, between Granby and Chilmark Streets, near Cottage Farm bridge, convenient to the subway. Charges will be $2.00 per person for one night's lodging and breakfast. Reservations must be made on or before June 1, through the Secretary, Ralph W. Taylor, 688 Boylston Street, Boston.

The train service is excellent between the South Station or Trinity Place Station, Boston, and Auburndale. Inbound trains are frequent in the late evening, so that favorable connections can be made with late trains leaving the Boston terminals for suburban points. Alumni traveling together can effect a material saving by purchasing twelve-ride tickets.

Suggestions

Class insignia: badge, arm-band, or cap.

Class meeting in special room.
Class luncheon, Lasell Seminary.
Class walks to Riverside or Norumbega Tower.
Attendance in a body at the Senior Play.
Class table at the Alumni Banquet.

ETA CHAPTER (College of Business Administration)

The Annual Meeting of Eta Chapter, the College of Business Administration, will be held on Friday evening, June 16, at Hotel Vendome, corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street. The Business Meeting will be held at 6.00 o'clock, followed by dinner at 7.00, with dancing until 12.00. Tickets, $3.50 each. Reservations should be made not later than June 14 through the Secretary, Hurlburt L. Plummer, 130 Broadway, Arlington, Mass. (Telephone: Arlington, 1887-W.)

Pop Concert. At the meeting of the Executive Committee of Eta Chapter the suggestion was made that members of Eta Chapter who intend to be present at the Pop Concert sit in a body. If this plan is adopted, it will bring all the alumni of this department in one section of the hall. It is hoped that graduates will take advantage of this opportunity for reunion, and will make a good showing for Eta Chapter. All graduates of the College of Business Administration who are in favor of this arrangement should communicate on or before May 31, with the President of the Chapter, John Speirs, 39 High Street, Boston, Mass. (Telephone, Main, 2920.)

(When sending order, please state number of seats desired and include check, cash, or money order in payment for your reservation. Please note that all reservations must be paid for by May 31.)

KAPPA CHAPTER (School of Religious Education)

Kappa Chapter announces an Outdoor Reunion at Woodbourne Woods, Forest Hills, on Saturday, June 17, at 2.00 p.m. After a picnic lunch, the business meeting will be held at Upham Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. A reception to new members will follow the business meeting.

Members or classes (undergraduate or alumni) of the School of Religious Education, desiring to sit together at the Pop Concert Monday night, June 19, should make reservations at $1.00 each through Miss Edith Jordan, School of Religious Education, corner Temple and Derne Streets, Boston, Mass., on or before May 31.
College of Secretarial Science. Members or classes (undergraduate or alumni) of the College of Secretarial Science, desiring to sit together at the Pop Concert Monday night, June 19, should make reservations at $1.00 each through Miss Gertrude Curtis, 27 Garrison Street, Boston, Mass., on or before May 31.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY NIGHT AT THE POP CONCERT

Monday, June 19, 8 P. M., Symphony Hall

This is an all-University affair. Graduates of all departments — members of faculties, trustees, students, and friends — gather as one University family. Since there are nearly 10,000 students registered in the various departments of the University this year, and an equal number of graduates, there will be a capacity house.

Many classes will hold informal reunions. This is an especially fine opportunity for the five-year classes ('77, '82, '87, '92, '97, '02, '07, '12, '17) to celebrate their anniversaries. The graduating classes usually reserve large sections of the hall. Many groups are reunions of friends. Those desiring such reservations should make them at once through the office of the deans of the various departments. All such reservations must be paid for by May 31.

Tickets will be on sale May 15 at $1.00, admitting to seats at tables on the floor and to first-row seats in the first balcony; seventy-five cents for second and third rows of first balcony; and fifty cents for the remaining first balcony and for second balcony seats. It is important that all who wish to come should order tickets at once. Immediately upon receipt of check or cash, tickets for the best available seats will be mailed. When giving an order, applicants should state choice, if they have any, and it will be met as closely as possible.

Tickets will be held until May 31 for reservations by groups, classes, or departments. Such tickets as are not reserved before May 31 through the dean’s office, as indicated above, may be secured by mailing order with cash, check, or postal order, on or before June 10, to Ralph W. Taylor, 688 Boylston Street, Boston, 17. But in this case there is little probability that classes or large groups can sit together.

THE SUMMER SESSION

The official bulletin of the Summer Session announces a faculty of 66, and 141 courses. Five departments of the University will participate: The College of Liberal Arts, the College of Business Administration, the College of Secretarial Science, the School of Religious Education, and the School of Education. The session will begin with Registration Day, Monday, July 10, and will close with examinations on Wednesday, August 23. Classes will meet on five days each week, leaving Saturday free for excursions or special studies. Applications for the circular should be addressed to Dr. Alexander H. Rice, Director of the Summer Session, 688 Boylston Street, Boston.

In recognition of the 89th birthday of President-Emeritus William F. Warren, the members of the faculty of Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Illinois, sent him a letter containing hearty greetings and all good wishes upon the beginning of his 90th year. The letter was signed by the members of the faculty and was forwarded by President Charles M. Stuart who, in his personal note, said: “It is sent with the warmest affection of us all who are remembering with deep and abiding gratitude the distinguished service which you have rendered the Church and the Kingdom.

As soon as it was known that ex-president Dr. William E. Huntington and Mrs. Huntington were to be in Washington on the day of the dedication of the Grant Memorial, an informal reception was arranged in the parlors of the Ebbitt, where they were staying, on Friday afternoon, April 27, 1922. Those who were present were: Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts, ’72, School of Theology; from the College of Liberal Arts; Frank J. Metcalf, ’86, and wife; Mrs. Margaret Bradford Hildreth, ’87; Clift R. Richards, ’88, and wife and daughter; Miss Cora Rigby, ’89; Mrs. Margaret Tyacke Hobbs, ’97, and husband and three children.

The Departments

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

A conference of the alumni teachers of the College of Liberal Arts was held in the college building on Saturday, April 29. A general assembly was held at 12:15, followed by luncheon at the invitation of the Trustees. At 1 p.m. the teachers assembled in Jacob Sleeper Hall and were addressed by Mr. Joel Hathaway, chief examiner for the Board of Boston Superintendents, who took as his subject “The Method of Ranking Teachers.” He was followed by Professor Marshall L. Perrin who spoke on “The Arriving Freshman.” The addresses were followed by round-table conferences of the several departments.
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Dean Everett W. Lord attended in May a series of meetings held in Pittsburgh, Washington, and Philadelphia, including the Convention of Business Engineers, the National Foreign Trade Convention, and the meetings of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Business. Professor Roy Davis, Assistant Dean, joined Dean Lord in Philadelphia to attend the latter on May 4, 5, and 6.

COLLEGE OF SECRETARIAL SCIENCE

Friday evening, April 28, the roof campus was opened formally with a band concert by the R. O. T. C. band of the University.

During the April vacation Dean Davis presented to Mr. George B. Christian, President Harding's Secretary, the key of Sigma Society, to which Mr. Christian was elected an honorary member last May. Nearly forty of the students who were in Washington on a trip were present at this meeting and were greeted also by President Harding and Vice-President Coolidge. The presentation of the Sigma key was made in the Cabinet Room.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

At a meeting of the Trustees in April the title of Dean Emeritus was conferred upon Dr. Marcus D. Buell, who will this year retire after a term of service of thirty-eight years in the school.

SCHOOL OF LAW

The Bigelow Association of Masters of Law, at a dinner held at the Women's City Club on the twenty-second day of April, presented to Dean Homer Albers, of the Law School, and to Mrs. Bigelow, widow of the late Dean of the Law School, full morocco bound copies of the first volume of the Boston University Law Review. The Association consists of graduates of the Law School who are holders of the degree of Master of Laws.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

'04. Dr. Belle J. Allen was one of the speakers at the celebration of Founder's Day by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held at Tremont Street Church on Thursday evening, March 23.

Alpha Kappa Kappa and Phi Chi, two leading medical fraternities, have recently established chapters at the Medical School. On April 26, Phi Chi held a banquet at the Hotel Vendome for the purpose of initiating the alumni.
