Three Months Old

The Boston University Alumni Magazine has made its start. For three months we have appeared as an official publication of the Alumni Association. For three months we have brought into your home the news of Boston University.

This issue brings us to the vacation period and will be the last one until September. We hope that if any of the B. U. folks spend any time in Boston or vicinity this summer, that they will drop in and get acquainted. If we in the Alumni Office can be of any service to you, do not hesitate to let us know. The office will be open all summer.

And now the Alumni Secretary wishes every one of you a very pleasant and restful summer vacation.

Los Angeles Alumni Organizes

According to a recent message received from Mrs. Louis Lombardi, the alumni of Los Angeles have organized a B. U. Club. The President is George Chase, ex-Liberal Arts, and the Secretary is Louis Lombardi, Liberal Arts ’20.

A Life’s Ambition Realized

While Dr. Mary F. Cushman, Medical ’92, was studying at Boston University, she impressed her instructors with her intense desire to do missionary work. Her particular interest was Africa. However, due to family reasons, she was unable to take up her desired work until after the death of her mother. At this time, Dr. Cushman was fifty years old, and none of the regular missionary societies cared to send her into the field. In some way, she went on her own resources to Angola in Portuguese West Africa, where she has established her own hospital.

Her practice covers 30,000 square miles and she has under her care a population of 100,000 natives. During three years she has treated more than 41,000 cases, and at last a life’s ambition has been realized.

On to West Point—September 25

West Point and B. U. meet for their first game of the season on September 25. The B. U.-West Point game is always colorful. It is preceded by the West Point Drill and Saturday Inspection and the Army and B. U. bands furnish music. This year’s game promises to be full of mid-season thrills as it is the first game for each team and the Terriers are going to start where they left off and begin winning by taking the first game.

Through the influence of Alfred Dion, Business Administration ’24, a special B. U. excursion to New York, via the Fall River Line, will carry over the band and the loyal rooters. Come on Alumni, take this trip to New York and see the Terriers start the season right.

Born On Commencement Day

The Class of 1896, Liberal Arts, announces its latest grandchild, a son, Robert Stephan, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Mason, on Commencement morning, June 13. “Bob”, the father, is the Alumni Secretary of the University and received his degree in 1921, while John, the grandfather, is a member of the class of ’96.

According to President Marsh’s history and forecast of the Mason family’s B. U. connection, given at the New York Alumni Reunion, young Robert is destined to become a graduate of the School of Law.

’96 pledges his health, and his happiness and success in the biggest sense of the words, whatever his calling may be.
For the first time in the history of Boston University, graduates of all ten schools and colleges of the institution participated in a big all-University Reunion Dinner, held at the Boston Arena, Saturday, June 11.

More than fourteen hundred hungry and wildly enthusiastic Alumni from all parts of the United States found their way to the central meeting place and joined in making history for "Old B. U." This gathering was undoubtedly the largest single gathering ever held in the east. Picture 1400 cheering, singing graduates filling the floor of the building with the largest seating capacity in New England and you have the scene which was a part of this year's commencement exercises.

1876 to 1927 Represented

Every class from 1876 to 1927 was represented at this gathering. Many of them had special reunions during the day and came in a body to the big dinner at night. Reports of these reunions will be found elsewhere in the magazine.

Many Turned Away

About 100 more "grads" were turned away at the door because the capacity guaranteed the caterer had been reached. The moral of this story is "make your reservations early in 1928".

As soon as everybody was seated (and it was a job seating 1400) Judge Thomas Z. Lee, Law '09, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, introduced Dr. A. H. Reimer, Theology '07, who offered the invocation. During the dinner, music was furnished by the B. U. Band.

As soon as the dinner was over, George Shannon, Business Administration '24, sang songs to quiet the crowd prior to the introduction of President Marsh.

Toasts to Former Presidents

The first act of President Marsh, '08, was to call for a toast to Presidents Emeritus Warren and Huntington and also for former President Murlin. A short business meeting and the report of the organization committee followed these toasts." President Marsh presided.
Report of Organization

June 11, 1927.

To the Alumni of Boston University in Convocation assembled:

In October, 1926, the general officers of the chapters constituting the University Convocation were invited by President Marsh to a conference to consider a matter of importance to the alumni of the University. Every Chapter was represented.

In the belief that the existing form of alumni organization was more conducive to departmental than university loyalty, President Marsh proposed a reorganization of the alumni body.

The plans of the President were approved unanimously by the forty-one officers present, and the presidents of the several chapters of the Convocation, as an executive committee, were authorized and empowered to co-operate with the president of the university in working out the plans.

This executive committee considered the immediate need to be an alumni secretary. Acting upon a previous petition of Epsilon Chapter, endorsed by other chapters, the trustees of the university had approved the creation of such an officer but the office had never been filled.

With the advice of the executive committee and after painstaking and thorough search the President of the university nominated for this office Mr. Robert F. Mason, B. B. A., M. B. A., Asst. Professor in the Management, Method and Sales Department of the College of Business Administration and his appointment by the trustees followed.

The executive committee has held many meetings and has unanimously approved the following recommendations:

1. That a reorganization of the alumni body be made.
2. That such an association be a department of the university to be called "The Boston University Alumni Association."

3. That an alumni board be established to consist of the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of each Convocation Chapter for the academic year 1926-1927.

4. That the presidents of the Convocation Chapters constitute an executive committee of the board.

5. That the President of the University preside at the sessions of this Committee until the election of a President of the Alumni Association following the adoption of reorganization plans at the 1927 Commencement reunion of the alumni.

6. That an alumni publication be issued monthly during the academic year.

7. That this publication be the official organ of the Boston University Alumni Association.

8. That the Executive Committee as herein provided for be constituted a committee on Organization.

1. To carry the plans of organization into effect.
2. To nominate officers for the first year, and
3. To conduct the election of the same.

President Marsh, I move the acceptance of this report and the adoption of its recommendations.

Respectfully submitted,

Walter I. Chapman,
Chairman. Sub-Committee on Organization.

This was seconded by Dr. Ferguson who read the signatures of every other president of a convocation chapter to show that the report was presented to the Alumni only after unanimous approval of the Executive committee.
Presentation of Awards

President Marsh then presented the Relay Team, Onthank, Cullen, Hatch, Mastaglio, and George, with solid gold track shoes on behalf of the newly organized Alumni Association.

William Fairfield Warren Cup

This cup, donated by the General Alumni Association for the University class having the largest percentage of its living members present at the annual June Reunion was awarded to the class of 1877. It is very fitting that the first class to graduate from the University should be the first class to win the William Fairfield Warren Cup. Their percentage was 33 19-23 and representatives from Liberal Arts, Law, Medical, Agriculture, and Theology were present at this First All-University Dinner.

Induction of Seniors

Representative seniors from each department were inducted into the General Alumni Association by President Marsh. The induction service itself was very impressive and will become an annual feature of the June Reunion. It was written by Dean Everett W. Lord of the College of Business Administration, Liberal Arts '00 and Graduate School '06.

Balance of Program

President Marsh then introduced the toastmaster of the evening, ex-Governor John L. Bates, Liberal Arts '82, Law '85.

He then introduced the XXXX quart-ette, which represented an unknown quantity. The quality of their musical numbers was apparent.

Barton Rees Pogue, Theology '21, was then introduced and the "Hoosier Schule Master Poet" read his own poem 'Down to the Town of Friendship,' which appeared in the June issue of Good Housekeeping.

Then the toastmaster called for recognition of classes, prior to 1877. 1871, 1875, and 1876 were represented. The class toasts for the five and ten year classes were then given by the following class representatives:

1877—50th Anniversary, Dr. Charles L. Goodell, Liberal Arts, executive secretary of the Federation of Christ in America.
1887—40th Anniversary, John A. O'Shea, Music, the director of Music for the Boston Public Schools.
1907—20th Anniversary, Dr. Leroy M. S. Miner, Medical, Dean of Harvard Dental School.
1912—15th Anniversary, Prof. Donald C. Babcock, Theology, Professor of History at the University of New Hampshire.
1917—10th Anniversary, Prof. Atlee L. Percy, Business Administration, Professor of Accounting at Boston University.
1922—5th Anniversary, A. A. Capone, Education, Boys Secretary of the Boston Y. M. C. A.

Immediately following the toasts, George Shannon, Business Administration '24, entertained with novelty songs.

Chief Justice William H. Sawyer, Law '90, of the Superior Court of New Hampshire, was introduced as the next speaker. In his inimitable way he brought to us choice tid-bits or "Orange Blossoms from the Law."

Ralph E. Brown then lead the singing of Clarissima and everybody that came went home happy and ready to come to the June 1928 Annual All-University Reunion.

Mrs. Walter Scott Athearn

All Boston University graduates mourn the death of Mrs. Walter Scott Athearn, wife of the dean of the School of Religious Education, after an illness of about two months. Mrs. Athearn was 55, and had been married thirty-three years.

She is survived by Dean Athearn, and their two children, Clarence R., and Gertrude E. Mrs. Athearn was very popular among the graduates and students of the school.

Another College President Elected

With the election of Dr. Marion Talbot, Liberal Arts '80, as acting President of the Constantinople Women's College, the total living graduates of Boston University now serving as College or University heads number forty. For many years, Dr. Talbot was the Dean of Women at Chicago University. She is eminently fitted for this new position—and of course, we are proud of the fact that a B. U. "grad" has been selected for the presidency of Constantinople Women’s College.

In addition, among the living graduates, Boston University numbers three more who have served as College or University presidents. They are:

- Bishop Wilbur Patterson Thirkield, ’81, Howard University, Washington, D. C.
- Bishop Francis John McConnell, ’97, DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind.
- William W. Foster, Jr., ’73, Rust College, Holly Springs, Miss.; Beaver College, Beaver, Pa.; and Clark University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Through an omission in the last issue these names were left out. This makes a total of sixty Boston University graduates, now living, who have served, or are now serving, as College or University Presidents.

Athletics

Tennis Team Wins All But One Match

With only one defeat in seven matches the B. U. Tennis Team has set up an enviable record. With no money available for a coach, the team went about coaching itself. Much of the credit for the splendid showing is due to Captain "Don" Martin who acted as coach. The season’s record follows:

Announcement of Purchase of An Athletic Field Features Commencement

President Marsh announced on June 13, at Commencement, that Boston University had purchased an athletic field and thus filled a needed want in the life of the undergraduates.

This field is the old B. A. A. Recreation ground at Riverside. It is only sixteen minutes from Trinity Place and will be nearer from the new campus on Bay State Road. It is as near Boston University as are most of the college and University stadiums.

The field itself consists of twenty-four and one-half acres of land. There is a club house, a boat house, and a large cooking house on the land. This gives Boston University athletic teams a needed place to practice. The athletic policy of the University will continue to be sports for everybody.

There is room for two diamonds, two gridirons, a track, and there are already several tennis courts on the field.

It is expected that home football games will be played on the new field this fall.

O’Brien Elected Baseball Captain

Glenn O’Brien of Salem, versatile and popular Boston University athlete, has been elected captain of the Terrier baseball outfit for next season.

O’Brien is also captain-elect of football at the university, and as such is the first individual to hold captaincies in major sports since the days of “Spike” Carlson and Carlson’s two major captaincies were not in the same academic year.

O’Brien was a star quarterback on the Terrier football team last fall, and has alternated between second base and short-stop on the baseball team. During the season just closed he played at the second base consistently.

As a freshman, O'Brien was captain of his first year football, basketball, and baseball teams, and broke a record in that respect. He has won a letter in varsity football two years in succession. He also plays basketball with the varsity team, and at left forward is one of the team's most dependable men.

At Salem High School, Glenn was a football, baseball, and basketball player, and won recognition for his ability. When he came out for varsity football at B. U., it was felt that his light weight was a handicap, but, winning a chance to show, he amazed watchers and won instant recognition as one of the best quarters in Terrier annals. He is 22 and a junior at the College of Business Administration of the university.

B. U. Drops Last Baseball Games

Friday, the thirteenth of May, was a bad day for the Terriers as Holy Cross defeated the B. U. team to the tune of 13 to 2. Holy Cross went on a batting spree and gathered eighteen hits to B. U.'s five.

The last game was with Tufts and it was a good game until the ninth inning with the score of 2 to 1 in favor of Tufts. And then the ninth—B. U. went to pieces and Tufts scored five runs, thus spoiling a pitcher's battle.

With the freshman twirler, Norm George on the mound, B. U. lost to Rhode Island State by a score of 8 to 1. Rhodey had a bunch of heavy hitters and they garnered fifteen hits off young George's delivery.

At New Hampshire State, Don Mac-

Donald, the Terrier ace, and Evan staged a pitcher's battle, which resulted in defeat for the Terriers although they out hit New Hampshire. The score was 3 to 2.

1887 Holds Fortieth Reunion

The class of 1887 C. L. A. as has been its five year custom since 1912 held its fortieth anniversary reunion on June 4, at Badger Farm, Holden, Mass., as the guests of Miss Louise Murdock and her friend, Miss Baxter. Members and their "in-laws" were present from New Hampshire, New York (one of whom made her appearance for the first time since graduation and was enthusiastically welcomed) as well as from Massachusetts. Upon our arrival we were taken to "The Barn" where as the double doors were opened, we discovered a table gleaming with beautiful linen, ancestral china and silver. In the middle was a gray jar of red tulips and white narcissus, B. U.'s colors. Facing us was a card reading, "The Prime of Life is Always Just Five Years Ahead". At the plates were cards with witty sayings written by Miss Murdock, the correct interpretation of which signified to whom the seat belonged. After the bountiful luncheon was finished the hostesses asked each one to give an account of his last five years, ending with the quinquennial report of the secretary and the reading of letters from Mrs. Thomas Bond Lindsay, Dr. Huntington, Dr. Marsh and absent members of the class from far away places. After pleasant walks and talks in which "Do you remember?" seemed to be the most prominent, tea was served and we all wended our several ways homeward deciding that this was just a little the best yet.

Mary J. Wellington, Secretary.
Pack Arena for Commencement

Boston University's fifty-fourth commencement was held in the Boston Arena and about 10,000 people witnessed the most colorful graduation exercises in the history of the University.

The Commencement speaker was Dr. John Gabbert Bowman, LL. D., Litt. D., Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh. His subject was "On Being Yourself". After his brief address, President Marsh conferred the degrees upon 1034 students.

Following the earned degrees, a number of honorary degrees were granted. Those receiving these honorary degrees were:

DOCTOR OF COMMERCIAL SCIENCE
CLARENCE WALKER BARRON, Editor, Publisher, spokesman of industrial America to the investing public of the United States, promulgator of the doctrine that the laws of happiness are the laws of service.

DOCTOR OF LETTERS
ROBERT LINCOLN O'BRIEN, Publisher, publicist, editor whose superb talents are invested for the common weal.

DOCTOR OF DIVINITY
WILL WINTON ALEXANDER, Preacher of the Gospel of Christ, and practitioner of the same, furthering the cause of inter-racial co-operation with intelligence, courage and tact.

DOCTOR OF LAWS
JOHN GABBERT BOWMAN, University President, seer in the educational world, defender of spiritual values in a materialistic age.
EXERCISES; PRESIDENT MARSH, SPEAKING.

ROBERT JAMES PEASLEE, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, leader of movements of humane progress, and an alumnus of Boston University.

ALVAN TUFTS FULLER, Governor of the Commonwealth, serving in the field of politics with reputation unsullied and character unimpeachable, manifesting always a disposition to be a public servant instead of a public master.

Annual Pops Night

The S. R. O. sign was hung up at Symphony Hall on June 13 at the annual B. U. concert. An excellent musical program was enjoyed by the “grads” and the evening was full of fun. Paper hats and streamers were furnished by the committee to every one in the hall and before the evening was over Symphony Hall had taken on a festive appearance.

Through the courtesy of the management, a special B. U. menu was served, consisting of the B. U. Special Sandwich, cup cakes with white frosting and a red B. U. and ice cream with the red B. U.

This year tickets were at a premium, so next year, buy early.

Baccalaureate Convocation

Sunday, June 12, witnessed the greatest Baccalaureate Convocation in the history of the University. Symphony Hall was jammed to the doors and President Marsh’s address was a real contribution to the educational world. This address will be printed as a supplement to Bostonia and will be mailed to each alumnus very shortly.
Medical '85

Originally numbered 26; 16 out of this number have closed their earthly labors. We are saddened at this writing by the recent death of Martha E. Mann, who died at her home, 5 Park Street, Brookline, Mass., June 20th, after a prolonged sickness. Although Dr. Mann was very sick May 28th, she requested the secretary to express her regrets that because of her inability to attend the Alumni festivities in June, she would have to send her fond greetings to each member of her Class.

A letter was sent to each member of '85 by the Class Secretary: everyone responded, with the exception of Wilbur K. Bouton, and we are aware that the time was not sufficient for us to hear from Melbourne, Australia.

Edwin L. Clarke and his wife, Edith (Leavitt) Clarke of Akron, Colorado, sent their regrets and cordial greetings. Dr. Edwin L. Clarke continues in active practice; Dr. Edith Leavitt Clarke has retired.

Alfred Manly Duffield writes: "I feel it a great deprivation to be absent from the June festivities, for I would love to meet my old associates and comrades, and hope to another year. I continue in the practice of medicine with my old-time zest; swing my axe instead of an Indian club,—a tree over two feet in diameter is not beyond my strength.

Richard H. Eddy continues in his successful practice at Providence, R. I. He has a fine outfit for physiotherapeutic work, which he pursues in his customary conscientious manner.

Mary Morey (Mrs. Benjamin Pearson) continues her practice in Jamaica Plain, Mass. She has been the Medical Director of the American Benefit Society (an insurance company) for 27 years.

Lucy J. Pike (Sister Raphael) is President of Trinity College, Washington, D. C. She retains the same graceful mannerisms which distinguished her among her classmates. She sent her regrets and cordial greetings.

Walter Tuttle, Exeter, N. H., sent his regrets and greetings. He continues in active practice.

Sarah Sweet Windsor is not engaged in active practice. She sent her regrets and greetings from her home in Greenville, R. I.

Clara Emerette Gary, Class Secretary sends her loyal greetings to every member of her Class. She continues in active practice in Boston, and has an increasing desire to do better work as the years advance.

1902 Class Reunion

The members of the Class of 1902 C. L. A. had a very enjoyable reunion at Alden Park Manor, Longwood Avenue, on June 11th. Twenty-nine members were present at the luncheon and meeting and thirty-one members of the class attended the Alumni Banquet at the Arena where Professor and Mrs. Taylor were guests of the class. Letters were read from distant members in Kansas, Iowa, Arizona, New Hampshire and Vermont. Leonard Porter Aryes, Vice President of the Cleveland Trust Company, gave us an interesting account of his varied experiences since graduation. Alice Lawton of the Boston Transcript told us of her work as a newspaper woman and author of a book soon to be published, and Dr. Amber Starbuch of Springfield spoke of her plans for a rest and recreation home in Western Massachusetts. All present felt amply repaid for their attendance and agreed that an effort should be made to meet annually.

Thirtieth Anniversary, Class of ’97, College of Liberal Arts

Sixteen members and three guests of the Class of ’97, B. U. C. L. A., held their thirtieth anniversary reunion at a luncheon at the Vendome, Boston, June 11. Mrs. Elizabeth Putnam Clarke officiated as president, while the toasts were in charge of Miss Esther S. Dodge. Mrs. Mary Barnes Holden responded to “12 Somerset Street”; Mrs. Viola MacLellan Day to “The Parthenon”; Guy Richardson to “The Men’s Study”; Miss Eloise Crocker to “The Observatory”; Mrs. Bertha Crocker Merrill to “The Chapel”; Mrs. Mary Wonson Merchant to “The Lunch Room”; and Francis M. Carroll to “The Law School”. Professor Perrin, faculty guest, favored the Class with one of his unique talks, characterized by his optimistic views of the present generation. New officers were elected: Mrs. Mary Barnes Holden, president; Francis M. Carroll, vice-president; Eloise H. Crocker, treasurer; and Mrs. Viola MacLellan Day, 8 Hawthorne Terrace, New Bedford, Mass., secretary. The Class voted unanimously to continue its contributions to the College library. A resolution of sympathy in the loss of Miss May Bell McLam, late of Concord, N. H., was directed to be sent to her mother. In addition to those named above, there were present, Mrs. F. M. Carroll and Mr. Amasa A. Holden, guests, and Lena A. Glover, Mrs. Annie Hatch Chase, Ethel J. Heath, Alice M. Hodge, Lena B. Poole, Mrs. Elizabeth McIntyre Jewell, and Mrs. Ruth Wood Hoag.

Guy Richardson, Secretary.

Worcester Women’s Club

At a recent meeting, Laura G. Smith was re-elected President of the Women’s Club of Worcester County. One of the features of this organization is the Toy Theatre which has been established under the direction of Elsie G. Moreau, ’12.

C. B. A. Graduate Offers Information Regarding Japan

Kensuke Suzuki, B. B. A. 1922, now Secretary of the Osaka Commercial Museum in Osaka, Japan, an institution which is filling in Japan much the same position that the Philadelphia Commercial Museum fills in this country, working for the development of commercial relations between Japan and the Occident, offers the service of that Museum to Boston University alumni who may be interested.

Mr. Suzuki writes that he personally is especially interested in promoting trade between New England and Osaka and will gladly give any information regarding Osaka or Japan in general to any of our people who may write to him at the Commercial Museum.

St. Louis Club Organizes

The Boston University Club of St. Louis, Missouri, was formed on the evening of May 29. Professor R. K. Carleton, Liberal Arts ’19, was elected President. The other officers are as follows: Vice-president, Rev. T. Ross Hicks, Liberal Arts ’09, Theology ’11; Secretary-Treasurer, Harry Jones, Law ’18; Executive Committee; Rev. Kenneth Sausaman, Theology ’27, and Dr. A. H. Cleveland, Medical ’10.

Worcester Club

The Boston University Club of Worcester held a meeting recently to boost the June Reunion. Judging by the number of “Worcesterites” which attended, the meeting was a success. At this same meeting, several B. U. songs, written by Laura G. Smith, ’18, were sung.
Japan's Ambassador Entertained By B. U. Alumni

Japan's highest official representative in America, His Excellency, Ambassador Matsudaira, together with Madame Matsudaira and the two Misses Matsudaira, were the guests of honor at a luncheon arranged by the Women's Council of Boston University, Wednesday, June 8. Mrs. Everett O. Fisk, president of the Women's Council, who had been in charge of the elaborate preparations made, presided at the luncheon.

The Matsudairas are in Boston as the guests of the Japan Society, and Madame Matsudaira is being entertained by several women's colleges.

A reception preceded the luncheon. In the receiving line was the ambassador and his family, President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University, Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Fisk.

"Don" MacDonald Makes Professional Debut

"Don" MacDonald, captain of the 1927 Terrier Football Team and star twirler for the Baseball team, signed to pitch for Portland, Maine, in the New England League. He won his first game, holding Lawrence to three hits. Good luck to you, Don.
