EURO-DENTITY: Webs of Language and Self
A reading and conversation at the Institute for Human Sciences

Bernardo Atxaga is Basque's strongest literary voice. He belongs to a group of Basque writers who began publishing in the Basque language in the 1970s; his work has been translated into more than seventy languages. An English translation of The Accordionist's Son was published by Graywolf Press in February 2009.

Ilan Stavans is the Lewis-Sebring Professor of Latin American and Latino Culture at Amherst College. His books include the best-selling The Hispanic Condition (1995) and On Borrowed Words: A Memoir of Language (2001). Stavans has been called by The New York Times "the czar of Latino culture in the United States."

Mark Feeney is Boston Globe Living Arts Reporter and winner of the 2008 Pulitzer Prize for criticism.

In cooperation with the Center for International Relations at Boston University and the literary journal AGNI. Co-sponsored by the American Literary Translators Association (ALTA) and Zephyr Press. Funded by the European Commission Delegation in Washington DC.
