2005-10-03

Panel discussion: Two ambassadors on European Union enlargement

Nowotny, Eva
Boston University Institute for Human Sciences

http://hdl.handle.net/2144/20146

Boston University
EVA NOWOTNY is the Austrian Ambassador to the United States. Dr. Nowotny served as First Secretary with the Austrian Embassy in Egypt, as Counselor to the Austrian Permanent Mission to the U.N. in New York, as Vice-President of the Special Political Committee of the 36th U.N. General Assembly, as Foreign Policy Adviser to Chancellor Vranitzky, and as Director General of European Integration and Economic Affairs at the Austrian Foreign Ministry. She was Austria's Ambassador to France and the UK.

MARTIN PALOUŠ was appointed ambassador of the Czech Republic to the United States by Václav Havel in 2001. A dissident and founding member of the Civic Forum, he was elected to the Federal Assembly in 1990. He joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Czechoslovakia as an adviser and then as deputy minister of Foreign Affairs from 1990 to 1992. In October 1998, he became Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic. The author of numerous publications and a translator of the works of Hannah Arendt, Mr. Palouš has held a number of teaching positions at Charles University in Prague and has lectured extensively in the United States.