Poetry reading and conversation:
Poetry and politics: Writing is a celebration

Rozycki, Tomasz
Boston University Institute for Human Sciences

http://hdl.handle.net/2144/20152

Boston University
Poetry and Politics .............. with
Major Jackson and Tomasz Rozycki

SPECIAL EVENT
October 1, 2007
Monday 6:00 PM
Photonics Center
Boston University
8 St. Mary's Street
9th Floor

In cooperation with AGNI

Tomasz Rozycki is a Polish poet and translator. He has published five collections of poems to great acclaim: Vaterland (1997), Anima (1999), Chata umaïta (2001), Świat i antyswiat (2003), and the long epic poem Dwanaście stacji (2004), for which he was awarded the Kościelski Prize, the most prestigious literary prize for Polish writers under forty. The Forgotten Keys, a collection of Rozycki's poems in English, translated by Mira Rosenthal, has just been published by Zephyr Press.

Major Jackson, Associate Professor of English at University of Vermont and a faculty member of the Bennington Writing Seminars, is the author of two collections of poetry: Hoops (2006) and Leaving Saturn (2002). He is the winner of the 2000 Cave Canem Poetry Prize and finalist for a National Book Critics Circle Award. His poems have appeared in the American Poetry Review, Boulevard, Callaloo, Post Road, Triquarterly, and The New Yorker, among other literary journals and anthologies.

Free and open to public | Reception to follow

Inquiries: (617) 358-2778 or ihs@bu.edu
Institute for Human Sciences | 745 Commonwealth Avenue | Boston MA 02215