Sri Lanka Legislative Drafting Workshops

Seidman, Robert B.

http://hdl.handle.net/2144/22400

Boston University
DRAFT BILLS AND RESEARCH REPORTS TO IMPLEMENT
SRI LANKA'S 1987 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT DEVOLVING GREATER POWERS TO THE PROVINCES

Drafted by teams of Sri Lankan government officials during the 1998 Boston University Program for Legislative Drafting for Democratic Social Change

as part of the UNDP-Sri Lankan Project to strengthen Sri Lankan provincial drafting capacity while preparing priority legislation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Land Alienation in North Central Province drafted by R.A. Thilakaratne (North Central Provincial Council) and W.A. Jayasundera (Sri Lankan Institute for Development Administration

Private Hospitals in Northwestern Province drafted by S.M. Dassanayake (Northwestern Provincial Council) and K.J. Ratnayake (Legal Draftsman's Office, Colombo)

Prevention of Child Abuse in Central Province drafted by M.B. Ekanayake (Central Provincial Council) and L.P. Wijesinghe (Southern Provincial Council)

Protection and Maintenance of Roads of Uva Province drafted by L.M.P. Lankadikara and J.G.A. Wijedasa (Uva Provincial Council), and D.S.H. Kumarajeewa (Legal Draftsman's Office, Colombo)

Improvement of Bus Passenger Service in Western Province drafted by A.H. Gamage (Western Provincial Council), A.M.
Aniflebbe (Northeastern Province), and T. Tharmalingam (Legal Draftsman's Office, Colombo)

To Improve the Control of Patents drafted by V. Vimalakulan (Legal Draftsman's Office, Colombo)

To Regulate the Insurance Industry
by T. Tharmalingam and K.J. Ratnayake (Legal Draftsman's Office, Colombo)
The bills and reports included here remain in draft form. No doubt, in light of new facts and ideas provided in the discussions and workshops they will have with their colleagues and the relevant stakeholders on their return home, the drafting teams will revise them. These represent only a step towards final drafts.