

2004-04-28

Panel discussion: The end of the affair? "New" Europe and the United States

---

<https://hdl.handle.net/2144/20143>

"Downloaded from OpenBU. Boston University's institutional repository."

---

ADAM MICHNIK

historian, writer, lecturer, and former dissident, is the best known Polish public intellectual and one of Poland's leading journalists. In 1989 Michnik helped found the first independent Polish daily newspaper, Gazeta Wyborcza, which he has since served as editor-in-chief. A life-long activist for human rights, he was detained many times between 1965 and 1986, spending a total of six years in prison for his opposition to the communist regime. An adviser to the Solidarity trade union in 1980 and 1981, he was part of the Solidarity team during the Round Table negotiations of 1989 between the opposition and the government. He is the author of many essays, articles and books, including two collected volumes Letters from Prison and Other Essays and Letters from Freedom.

---

JONATHAN SCHELL

is the author of several books, the best known among them being The Fate of the Earth and The Village of Ben Suc. He has been a long term contributor to The New Yorker, where his reporting from Vietnam first appeared. He writes regularly for The Nation, Harper's Magazine, The Atlantic Monthly and Foreign Affairs, and has taught at Wesleyan, Princeton, Emory, and Yale, among other universities. He lives in New York City, where he is the Harold Willens Peace Fellow at The Nation Institute. His latest book is The Unconquerable World: Power, Nonviolence, and the Will of the People.