COMMUTER'S GUIDE TO S.E. EXPRESSWAY WORK AVAILABLE TO EMPLOYEES

Some 300 copies of "The Commuter's Guide: How to Get In and Out of Boston During the Expressway Construction," an insert in the March 14 issue of the Quincy Patriot Ledger, are available to UH employees, courtesy of the Ledger. Copies of the booklet, printed to provide commuters with comprehensive information about transportation options, can be obtained at the H-1 security desk, while they last. In addition to providing a brief explanation of the two-year construction process, "The Commuter's Guide" contains maps of alternate routes; bus, train and boat schedules; vanpool and park-and-ride services; and phone numbers, including Caravan, Inc.'s Commuter Hotline, 227-POOL, for complete information on commuting by car, rail, boat or bus.
