UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL NAMES NEW DIRECTOR OF DIAGNOSTIC AND THERAPEUTIC SERVICES

Boston, Mass.--Linda Fitzgerald Viano of Walpole was recently named the director of Diagnostic and Therapeutic Services at the University Hospital (UH). In her new position, Viano will have administrative responsibility for UH's Departments of Respiratory Therapy/Pulmonary Medicine, Cardiology and Neurology and the Diagnostic Vascular Laboratory.

Viano was most recently the director of the Department of Respiratory Therapy/Pulmonary Medicine. For nine years prior to that she was the technical director of the same department.

Viano is certified as a respiratory therapist and holds a bachelor's degree in nursing from Northeastern University. She also holds a certificate from the Management Development Program for Health Care at Boston University's School of Management.

Viano is a member of the Massachusetts Thoracic Society and a former chairman of its committees on nursing and education. She was also secretary and vice president of the board of directors for the Massachusetts Society for Respiratory Care and a member of the American Association for Respiratory Care.

The University Hospital, founded in 1855, is a principal teaching hospital of Boston University School of Medicine and a member of Boston University Medical Center.
