

Boston University

OpenBU

<http://open.bu.edu>

BU Publications

Take One

1986-09

Take one: September 1986

Boston University Medical Center. Take One: September 1986. Archived in OpenBU at <https://hdl.handle.net/2144/2559>
<https://hdl.handle.net/2144/25590>

Downloaded from DSpace Repository, DSpace Institution's institutional repository

take one

Special issue: Wednesday, Sept. 16 a publication for the people of University Hospital

WORLD-PREMIERE SHOWING OF MOVIE FILMED IN PART AT UH
SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE ON FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

The world-premiere of Billy Galvin, a full-length feature film shot in part at University Hospital, will take place on Friday, Sept. 19, at the Copley Place Cinema. A number of UH employees appeared as extras in the film, which stars Karl Malden and Lenny Van Dohlen. Scenes were filmed on D-6, in a patient room on C-6, and in the outpatient area of the emergency room. The movie deals with the strained relationship between an injured steelworker and his son.

Billy Galvin will be shown at 7:30, 9:45 and 11:45 p.m. Tickets are available for $5 and may be purchased after 10 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 19. The film's cast and crew are expected to attend the 9:45 showing. Ticket holders also are invited to attend a cast party beginning at 10 p.m. at the Lafayette Hotel in Boston. For further information, call 542-3334 on weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.