NOTICES

Edgar Pierce Professor of Psychology at Harvard, the famous Dr. B.F. Skinner, will speak next Tuesday, March 7, at 4 P.M. in the Evans Amphitheatre under the aegis of the Pharmacology Dept. on the topic "Teaching Machines." These contraptions have been in use at Harvard and consist of a box. It was once said, "The educational process is one of continual reorganizing, reconstructing, transforming." (1) The Harvardization of this medical school continues apace with the transformation of medical professors into a box. It is a noteworthy contribution to the space problem.

Phi Delta Epsilon invites all FRESHMEN and members to another one of its excellent socials at the home of faculty members and specialist brothers. Dr. Murray Freed of MMH will be the host, Friday, March 10, 8 p.m. We remind our readers, "Shared experience is the greatest of human goods." (2)

Confucius said, "I have never yet seen anyone whose desire to build up his moral power was as strong as sexual desire." This theme will be re-explored March 15, as the noted Professor of Obs.-Gyn., Dr. Alan F. Guttmacher, who has been selected as this year's PDE Aaron Brown lecturer, speaks on "BIRTH CONTROL: its place in America and the rest of the world." Bldg. A audit.
